GUY BOVET
MICHEL JORDAN

EMMANUEL LE DIVELLEC

Organised by Les Concerts de Romainmôtier
Artistic direction: Association Jehan Alain

The International Organ Course in Romainmôtier exists since 1969. During its long existence, more than 600 participants and 40 professors attended the course that takes place in magnificent historical surroundings.

Romainmôtier, a Clunisian site with one of Europe's most beautiful Romanesque churches, is located at about 20 miles from Lausanne, in a region with an ideal blend of mountains, plains, lakes and forests. Three remarkable organs can be used for the teaching.

We want our course to be also an opportunity for meeting, sharing and exchanging ideas; in addition to the lessons, we also organize common meals and concerts.

The lessons are given in various languages, as needed. English, German and French are standard.

COURSE PROGRAM

1. Practical course for church organists (July 12-14) Professors: Michel Jordan and Guy Bovet

Successfully organized since several years by the Jehan Alain association in cooperation with the Reformed Church, the parish of Romainmôtier and the Association of Organists, this three-day session is designed for non-professionals, and will give them a simple basis for liturgical improvisation, hymn accompaniment and some advice for their choice of repertoire and how to perform it. Group lessons and individual lessons according to the number of participants. Repertory: Brahms: free choice of a choral; Franck: «L'Organiste»; Bach: «Orgelbüchlein»; Jehan Alain : «Choral dorien» et «Choral cistercien».

NB: These are only proposals; of course it is possible to prepare even a small choice of music, and this is not a condition for the admission to the course.

2. Improvisation Course (July 17 – 22)

professors: Emmanuel Le Divellec (Hanover) Tobias Willi (Zurich)

This one week course, open for everybody, is an important feature of our Academy. A tangible result is guaranteed for each participant, regardless of level or preparation. However, the course requires total involvement and 5 to 6 hours of work per day (in two daily class lessons and one daily individual lesson, besides the personal practice time). The teachers work in full cooperation, and personalized attention is given to each student. On Saturday evening at the end of the week (July 22), the participants will play a little improvisation concert.

The number of participants is limited to 12 persons in order to ensure maximum attention. Admissions will be accepted in the order of application.

3. Interpretation Course (July 24 – 29) – «Autour» de Jehan Alain

Professors: Wolfgang Zerer (Hamburg)
Christophe Mantoux (Paris)

The interpretation course is intended for organ students, professional organists or very advanced amateur musicians. It is divided into two sessions of three days each; it is also possible to choose one session only. A team teaching-session will link the two courses, allowing a fascinating artistic dialogue between the two involved professors and the participants.

July 24 - 26: Wolfgang Zerer: Southern German baroque music; Schumann; Bach: Fugues and Schübler chorals; Jehan Alain

July 26 - 29: Christophe Mantoux: French baroque music; Franck; Jehan Alain

Detailed lists of repertory for both sessions will be available on the website www.jehanalain.ch from December 1st, 2022.

The number of participants is limited to 12 persons. Admissions will be accepted in the order of application.

Course fees and inscription details are listed on the inscription form.

PRATICAL INFORMATIONS

ARRIVAL

The nearest railway station is Croy-Romainmôtier where we can pick you up if you indicate your precise arrival time. The station is located at a walking distance of about 25 min to the village.

Participants for the improvisation or the interpretation week are asked to arrive on Sunday, July 16 (or 23), before 3 pm; please contact us if you need to arrive earlier or later in the day. There will be the opening concerts at 4 pm on the Alain organ and at 5 pm in the Abbey church, and after that the group will go to a mountain chalet (with a spectacular view on the Swiss plains and the Alps, weather permitting of course) for a traditional Swiss fondue.

Participants will get all the practical information about course schedules, practice instruments etc. during an organisation session on the first day of every course module at 9 a.m.

ACCOMMODATION

Lodging possibilities in Romainmôtier are good, but relatively limited. It is therefore important that you book your accommodation long time in advance.

Common residence “Champbaillard”

We are renting a house above the village, built for groups (school classes, scouts), and equipped with a well-organized kitchen, where residents can make their own meals. There are six rooms with two to six beds. The comfort is good, and the house is pleasantly situated.

Residents will have to bring their own towels but they can rent bed sheets or bring their sleeping-bags. The price includes lodging, a daily residence tax, the house cleaning and, in case, the replacement of broken dishes.

If you chose this option, please indicate it on the inscription form.

Hotels

There are two hotels in Romainmôtier: the Saint-Romain (+41 24 453 11 20), and the Maison Junod (<https://maisonjunod.ch>). Their number of rooms is limited. There are hotels in other villages, but people staying outside Romainmôtier must provide their own transportation, which is inconvenient without a car.

Lodging in private houses or camping

There are several possibilities for comfortable lodging in “bed & breakfast”-type houses in the village and immediate vicinity. There is also a camping site with a swimming pool. Information and reservation: www.romainmotier-tourisme.ch

COMMON MEALS

We organize a common breakfast in the Parish Center; the inscription for breakfast can be done on the application form (CHF 50.-/week).

At lunchtime, the restaurant “Le Prieur” in the patio of the Abbey offers a daily menu for a reasonable price; reservation necessary.
